April Highlights

2022 Campaign Celebration

We held our 2022 Campaign Celebration on April 26 at Wild Adventures Theme Park. Together with GVUW Leader Givers, we celebrated reaching 110% of our $1,000,000 campaign goal.

Thank you, Wild Adventures, for hosting us and allowing us to explore all of the wonderful new additions to the park!

On March 4, GVUW attended the 3rd Annual Combined Awareness Day at Moody Air Force Base! It was an

In April, two GVUW staff members, Robin and Korrelle, attended a meeting in Atlanta to collaborate with Georgia's United Way leaders on the expansion of 211 statewide.

211 is a free, confidential information and referral service that connects people to local health and human services. One of GVUW's main goals honor to be able to share our services and those of our partner nonprofits with Airmen and their families.

is to have 211 in our area so that our community members can be informed about the services available to meet their needs.

For more information on what 211 is and how you can support these efforts, visit <https://www.211.org/> or contact staff@gvuw.org.

Sponsorship Opportunities For 2023

We are currently showcasing a new sponsorship opportunity model for supporters of Greater Valdosta United Way. There are four different levels that provide sponsors continuous promotion throughout the year.

For questions, contact us at lcole@gvuw.org
