

NOVEMBER 2023

Fall Day of Caring

On Friday, October 20, GVUW hosted our semi-annual Day of Caring. Thank you to the volunteers who showed up to take on projects! The community is better because of your service.

This fall, we had over 150 volunteers completing projects at 13 local nonprofits!

October Highlights

Leader Giver Social

On October 18, we celebrated campaign week with a social to honor our Leader Givers! The beautiful evening of celebration was hosted by Hallabrook Hill and Jessie's Restaurant and Catering.

To the community members that make up this distinguished group of givers, we could not do the work in this community without you. Your generosity makes it possible for GVUW to improve others lives every day!

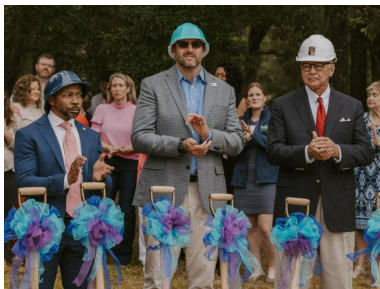

For more information on how to become a Leader Giver for GVUW, contact staff@gvuw.org or call 229.242.2208.

GVUW donates to Magnolia House Family Justice Center

On Friday, October 6, Magnolia House held their groundbreaking ceremony for the Family Justice Center in Waycross. The facility marks an important addition to victim services offered to the six counties surrounding Waycross.

Greater Valdosta United Way was honored to be a part of this ceremony and donate to the project.

Tra Battle Visits Clinch County Schools

October 13, retired NFL athlete, Tra Battle, visits three schools in Clinch County to talk about his own battles with mental health. GVUW has been partnering with Tra for over two years in our efforts to bring mental health awareness and suicide prevention to our South Georgia communities.
